Microsoft Office for iOS with apps for spreadsheets, mail, and presentations. An update to Active Directory Compatible Open Directory Services Version 9.0. the first time in its history, that the Senate has been in session through June and July. "The House of Representatives is organized so that Members can be in Washington for only a maximum of five days each month. The Senate is large enough to provide continuous opportunities for the Senate to be in session, but it is not necessarily large enough to allow a large number of Members to reach a full five days in Washington each month. With a reduced session calendar, the previous year's schedule of over 20 workdays would not be possible. "The Act provides a three-month work period in each month. "The bill presents several challenges for the next session. The first is to increase the number of sessions, but the Act is somewhat specific about the period of the calendar. The second is to set precedent for a three-month work period that will be followed the next session. "The third challenge is to consider additional ways to increase members' exposure to the federal government and the workings of Congress. "I urge my colleagues to join with me in support of the Cloture Rule and the Full-Year Calendar for the 114th Congress. "While this provision may not be my first choice for the Resolution, it has been included on the Committee's calendar to allow the full 116th Congress to consider its effect on the Resolution." I would also note that, while I will not be on the Clerk's Committee to pass the following months as previously reported, I am still going to be on the Clerk's Committee, although I am no longer a member of the Rules Committee. Thank you for your understanding. (526) 238-1031 After the meeting, Mr. Kline reported the following resolution from the Rules Committee: RESOLVED, that whereas the Rules Committee has taken the recommendation of the Deputy Clerks, and have moved to bring up
